10. RACE FORMAT:

RACE FORMAT. Final race format will be based on entries received and will be decided after close of entries. The split of events between Tuesday and Wednesday (i.e. number of events each day) will be decided approx. 1 week before the race meeting but will still be at the discretion of the Clerk of the Course.

Qualifying will be held in conjunction with Practice. Grid positions will be decided for all events from the practice sessions. and will NOT be progressive. Your grid positions will be the same for all race events.

ALL RACE EVENTS WILL HAVE A FULL WARM UP LAP PRIOR TO EACH RACE.

If you are going to cross enter your bike to another class, please read MOMS 2020 para 9.6.0.1 (c). This allows U/L bikes to enter the next era. e.g. 1 P4 U/L can enter the P5 U/L but will still have to comply with the P4 rules.

If you are cross entering to another class you will only score points for the log booked class of your bike. e.g 2 P6 production 250's will not score points in the P6 250 open class. e.g. 3 P4 350's will not score points in the combined P5 350 race. they will be scored separately.

Machines are eligible to enter:

- a) The capacity and era class as shown in the machine's logbook and,
- b) The next available capacity class in that era.
- c) Unlimited class machines may enter the next era but must run as per the rules of the log book era.
